

You are invited!

We would like to invite you to join us for a day of Learning and Networking at the CIPMM Agile and Innovative Procurement Symposium to be held on December 5, 2019 in Ottawa, Ontario at The Ottawa Conference and Event Centre.

We have developed a great Program (available on the CIPMM Website) for this Symposium that will include an impressive line-up of sessions, speakers, keynotes, exhibitors, networking opportunities, and much more. You will be able to hear directly from speakers from government departments such as Shared Services Canada, Public Services and Procurement Canada and the Canada Revenue Agency how they have used Agile and innovative procurement practices to improve procurement outcomes; learn how innovative private sector practices such as Design Thinking can be used to improve public sector procurement design; listen to senior leaders Sean Kealey (SSC), Levent Ozmutlu (PSPC), Jean-Claude Azar (CRA), and Gail Bradshaw (TBS) speak about how leadership attributes can be leveraged to address the constraints and mitigate the risks of Agile and other innovative procurement practices; benefit from discussions about how the legal landscape supports procurement innovation; and how you can use Agile and other innovative procurement methods effectively in your day to day work and much more. To register for this CIPMM Agile and Innovative Procurement Symposium, please click on the following link: <http://www.cipmm-icagm.ca/en/events/2019-agile-innovative-procurement-symposium>.

This Symposium demonstrates CIPMM's commitment to invest and strengthen the innovative capacity of the federal procurement community. Our objective is to give you an opportunity to engage with colleagues and exchange experiences and best practices.

We look forward to seeing you on December 5, 2019 at the CIPMM Agile and Innovative Procurement Symposium.

Sincerely yours,

Guylaine Carriere
2019 CIPMM Agile and Innovative Procurement Symposium Chair

P.S: Please find attached a letter to help you obtain approval from your boss ☺